INDEX TO VOLUME XIV

(abs) = Abstract. (E) = Editorial. (B.R.) = Book Review

Abdominal tumors, roentgenology of (abs), 583
Abscess, hepatic, amebic type, radiographic findings in (abs), 66
Hypostatic, rupture into the bronchi (abs), 62
Absorption of β and γ rays of radium in bone and ivory (abs), 482
Coefficient of water and aluminum with hard roentgen rays, significance of (abs), 89
Abstracts, value of (E), 50
Acetabulum, fracture of rim of, following subluxation of hip in patient with coxitis (abs), 276
Achondroplasia, a case (abs), 269
Acid-base equilibrium of the blood, action of roentgen ray upon (abs), 477
Acidity and emptying time of stomach, relation between (abs), 369
Acidosis in children, diseased appendix as a cause of, 436
Actinomycosis treated with radium (abs), 359
Addison's disease, condition of heart and aorta in (abs), 380
Adenocarcinoma of the cervical canal treated by radium and x-rays (abs), 81
Of the fundus of the uterus, results of treatment by radiation (abs), 81
Adenoids, roentgenographic demonstration of, 114
Adrenalin, diminution of reaction of a sensitive organ by administration of (abs), 476
Aime, P. See Coyon, A.
Albert, Simon. Appendicial stones simulating gallstones and kidney stones (abs), 193
Alkalinized opaque paste, reaction of gastrointestinal tract to (abs), 380
Allergy, roentgen and reversion as explanation of roentgen reaction of skin (abs), 93
Altschul. Critical remarks on the problem of dosimetry (abs), 364; Temporary relaxation of the diaphragm (abs), 363
Altschul, Walter. The roentgen treatment of tuberculosis (abs), 468

Andrews, George C. Units in superficial roentgenotherapy, 336
Anemia, aplastic, caused by radium (abs), 375; 378
Following treatment with x-rays (abs), 190
Pernicious and myeloid leukemia caused by manipulation of radioactive substances (abs), 282
Anencephaly, obstetrical roentgenology with special reference to, 39
Aneurysms of the internal carotid and tumors at base of brain (abs), 353
Angiomata, radium therapy in, 131
Antibodies, effect of roentgen ray on the production of (abs), 478
Antrum of Highmore and cysts of superior maxilla, demonstration of, roentgenologically by use of opaque salts (abs), 266
Anus and vulva, tumor in region of, treated with radium (abs), 173
Appelrath. Increase of the skin sensitiveness to roentgen rays in encephalitis lethargica (abs), 95
Appelrath, Hans. Radiation therapy of chronic arthritis (abs), 468
Appendicitis, chronic (abs), 576
And lesions complicating its diagnosis; deductions from x-ray examination (abs), 73
Appendix, diseased, as a cause of acidosis in children, 436
Value of the roentgen ray in determining conditions of (abs), 198
